

If You Take Care of It

Rhythm plays on an old umbrella
I'm standing in the rain, waiting for a change
Until it's time, I'll have to make run for it
Lonely trumpet down a blind alley
The Man with the open case has taken all my change
It's never certain that you'll see it

If you go and take care of it, it'll take care of you
If you go and take care of it, it'll come shining through
If you go and take care of it...
And all the traffic stopped at red

Clanging trays on a steel counter
I'm waiting in a queue
Cold coffee and a slice, I hope it's nice
(You're never sure of what you're getting...)
As condensation runs down steamy windows
I bite into my snack and something bites me back
I can't avoid it any more

If you go and take care of it, it'll take care of you
If you go and take care of it...
I pull my hood up tight and walk away politely

Tears and sighs on a wet pillow
What made my baby cry?
I've to put it right
Got to get these feelings right

If you go and take care of it, it'll take care of you
If you go and take care of it, it'll come shining through
If you go and sing to it, it'll sing back to you
If you go and take care of it

© Philip Cockerham (2010)